DETAILED ACTION

1. Claims 1-73 and 76-104 are allowed. These claims have been renumbered as claims 1-102.
2. Claims 74 and 75 have been cancelled in the amendment received on June 18, 2007.

REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

3. The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter:

The prior art of record does not render obvious to one ordinarily skilled in the art at the time of applicant's invention nor anticipate the combination of claimed elements including "programmatically detecting one or more resources coupled to or comprised in a computer system; retrieving, from a memory medium, patent marking information corresponding to each of said one or more resources based on said programmatically detecting, wherein the patent marking information comprises information identifying patents that are applicable to technology of the one or more resources" as recited in independent claim 1 and similarly recited in independent claims 24, 36, 58, 82, 85, 86, 93, and 94.

As per claim 89, the prior art of record does not render obvious to one ordinarily skilled in the art at the time of applicant's invention nor anticipate the combination of claimed elements including "means for receiving user input to purchase one or more software products from an e-commerce server, wherein the user input is received over a network; means for downloading the one or more software products from the e-commerce server computer system to a host computer system over the network" and similarly recited in independent claims 92 and 100.

Detecting one or more resources is interpreted as the resources may be detected by "plug and play" software and/or the other equivalent software for detecting resources. The resources may be detected after installing all or a subset of the one or more resources, or every time the computer system boots (see specification, page 29, lines 16-22).

The remaining claims are dependent claims, thus these claims are patently distinct over the art of record for at least the above reasons.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
